

4TH ANNUAL
UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS
CHAUTAUQUA

Sunday June 14, 2009
1:30 to 4:00 p.m.

Location: Corner of Melrose and Golfview
(across from Taste on Melrose)

What is Chautauqua?

A Chautauqua brings entertainment and culture to a community. It's a tent show but occasionally permanent buildings would be erected for the movement. Many families stayed in tents on the grounds for the entire Chautauqua session, about eight or nine days. Built in 1908, the Sac City Chautauqua Building is the only existing complete Chautauqua building left in Iowa.

PROGRAM

- Introduction
- Instrumental music by the Polka Dots band – Donna Angell, Kathie Belgum, Glorine Berry, Bill Gauger, William Laubengeyer, Jerry Musser, Steve Schomberg, Gene Spaziani, Dinny Stamp, and Nancy Wombacher
- Campfire songs by John and J.D. McLure
- Instrumental and Vocal Selections by the Golfview Regulars
- Bake-Off award ceremony/Announcements
- Vocal selections by Pocket Change, a barbershop quartet - Fred Grems (Tenor), Gail Crowe (Bass), Allan Mebus (Lead) and Jim Brown (Baritone)

Tours of the Coralville Fire Truck
Balloon Art by Clowns Wayne Gardner and Harold Plate
Face Painting by Mary Richard for Children of all Ages
Refreshments and Popcorn

We encourage you to walk, run, bike, or stroll to the event. Some parking available at Taste on Melrose parking lot. Bring your own lawn chair or blanket.

Thanks to Shive Haffery
for their Support

Special Thanks to
PAUL MOORE

Donations Appreciated

The Sweet Life in University Heights

BAKING CONTEST

in conjunction with...

The 4th Annual University Heights

Chautauqua

1:30 - 4:00 pm

Sunday, June 14
2009

Baking Contest rules:

There are five categories – pies, cakes, cookies, bars and special-diet desserts (dairy-free, sugar-free, and /or gluten free desserts). Only one entry per category per person. Must be home-made. Quantities for judging – one pie, one cake, dozen cookies, dozen bars, etc. No entries that require refrigeration. Entries must be registered by 1:30 pm at the Chautauqua. Ribbons awarded to the top three in each category. Winners announced at approximately 3:00 pm.

ENTER YOUR FAVORITES!!

Questions? Contact: Carol Ann 354-7188 or Pat 338-6252